Mumbai, 12 December 2016: Following its exhibition of works by Krishen Khanna, Saffronart is holding an exhibition of works by modernist Ram Kumar. Ram Kumar: Traversing the Landscapes of the Mind opens on Wednesday, 14 December 2016 at Saffronart's state-of-the-art gallery space at The Claridges, New Delhi.

From his solemn-faced men and women made during his time in post-war France, to his spiritual landscapes of Benaras, Ram Kumar's artistic process is marked by quiet contemplation. This approach is evident in the 73 works that are part of the exhibition.

A book launch of the works on exhibition, with an introductory essay by art writer and critic Meera Menezes, will be held at the opening of the show on 14 December. "After six decades Ram Kumar still keeps us guessing at how the landscapes of his mind will unfold," writes Menezes in her essay introducing the works to be exhibited. The catalogue is priced at INR 1,500 and is available at a special price of INR 1,200 at the launch.

Viewings for the exhibition will be held at Saffronart New Delhi from 15 – 31 December. Details of the works on display will be available on saffronart.com.
